Springwater-Hemlock Lake-Reynolds Gull Multi-Recreational Area

A rare treat of almost total wilderness activity in the Little Finger Lakes Area. Area encompasses approximately 5 square miles of year-round recreational activities including canoeing or kayaking, hiking, creek walking, mountain biking, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing and fishing. Looking for a more strenuous hike? Take the Lower Marrowback Road hike for an 800 vertical ascent that overlooks Hemlock Lake. Mind your step, respect private owner property, carry in/carry out and watch for the eagles that habitat this area.
